Mesa Verde National Park

March 7 to May 21, 2015

Spruce Tree House

Welcome to Mesa Verde National Park! Mesa Verde offers a spectacular look into the lives of the Ancestral Pueblo people who made it their home for over 700 years, from AD 550 to 1300. Today, the park protects nearly 5,000 known archeological sites, including 600 cliff dwellings. These sites are some of the most notable and best preserved in the United States. From the many sites located here and in the surrounding Four Corners area, archeologists have compiled one of the most significant chapters in the story of ancient America.

Visiting the Park

Spring is a magical time to visit. There are multiple activities available to help you experience this fascinating place. All activities depend on road and weather conditions. Please check with a ranger before beginning any of the listed activities. Guide booklets are available at the Mesa Verde Visitor Center, Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum, and at sites along the Mesa Top Loop Road. Stop either at the Visitor Center or Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum to plan your visit.

Spruce Tree House

Spruce Tree House is the park's best-preserved cliff dwelling. Located near the Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum, the 1/2-mile (0.8 km) winding, paved trail includes a steep 100-foot (30 m) descent and ascent. The trail is moderately strenuous and may be icy.

The site is open daily for self-guided visits. A ranger is available to answer your questions.

March 7 to April 11	9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Balcony House

Balcony House is the most adventurous cliff dwelling tour. This one-hour tour involves climbing a 32-foot (10 m) ladder to enter the site. You will also crawl through a 12-foot (3.7 m) long by 18-inch (46 cm) wide tunnel, and climb 60 feet (20 m) up an exposed cliff face, using two 10- to 12-foot (3.0 - 3.7 m) ladders, and a series of stone steps.

Tickets are required. Tickets must be purchased at the Visitor Center located at the park entrance.

April 12 to May 2

Tour times: 9:00 am, 9:30 am, 12:00 pm, 2:00 pm,
3:00 pm, 3:30 pm, 4:00 pm

May 3 to May 21

Tour times: 9:00 am to 5:00 pm; every hour and 9:30 am and 3:30 pm

Tours begin at the north end of the Balcony House parking lot, a 25-mile (40 km), 1-hour drive from the Visitor Center.

Preservation Work in Cliff Palace this Spring

Cliff Palace, the park's most famous cliff dwelling, is the focus of essential preservation efforts in 2015. Significant cracking and bulging in some of the standing walls was detected in the southern part of the site in 2011. Since then, emergency stabilization was done and archeological and structural engineers have provided a comprehensive site assessment. Much of this previous work was "behind the scenes" for most park visitors.

This year, the work will be much more evident. Due to the nature of the work required, Cliff Palace is closed to tours this spring.

There are a number Cliff Palace viewpoints from which to observe this remarkable cliff dwelling as well as witness the preservation work. These include the Cliff Palace overlook on the Cliff Palace Loop Road; and the Sun Point View and Sun Temple stops on the Mesa Top Loop Road.

Explore On Your Own

The Visitor Center and Chapin Mesa Archeological Museum will both help you gain insights into the lives of the Ancestral Pueblo people.

The visitor center is located just off U.S. Highway 160 near the park entrance. The museum is located 22 miles (35 km) from the Visitor Center, on Chapin Mesa. A 25-minute video is shown at the museum every half hour. See Visitor Services below for visitor center, museum, and store hours.

Petroglyph Point Trail begins near the museum. The 2.4-mile (3.9 km) trail leads to a large petroglyph panel. If the trail is dry, it can be hiked as a loop. However, due to ice and snow, you may be directed to hike via the mesa top section of the trail, or the entire trail may be closed. Check with a ranger at the museum for trail conditions and to register for the hike.

Cliff Palace Loop Road is closed to vehicular traffic until early April. During this time, it is open to cross-country skiing and snowshoeing, or walking if there is no snow. No vehicles are permitted. To explore this 6-mile (10 km) road, park just outside the locked gate, but do not block the gate. Highlights include Cliff Palace and Soda Canyon overlooks (view of Balcony House).

In early April, the gate will be open daily for vehicular traffic from 8:00 am to sunset.

Mesa Top Loop Road is a 6-mile (10 km) drive with short paved trails to view twelve easily-accessible archeological sites, including surface sites and cliff dwelling overlooks. Highlights include views of Square Tower House and Cliff Palace from Sun Point and Sun Temple overlooks. Open daily 8:00 am to sunset, weather permitting.

Far View Sites Complex includes Far View House, four other villages, and a dry reservoir. Located four miles (6.4 km) north of the museum, this 3/4-mile (1.2 km) trail is not plowed. If gate is closed, park just outside the gate without blocking access. Open from 8:00 am to sunset; wheelchair accessible with help.

Wetherill Mesa will open May 1 or as soon as weather and road conditions permit. Explore the 5-mile Long House Loop (the former tram road) by foot or bicycle, stopping at cliff dwelling overlooks such as Long House, Nordenskiöld #16, or Kodak House. Walk through the Badger House Community to see early mesa top sites. Wetherill Mesa is a 45-minute drive from the Wetherill Road turn-off near mile 15. (Please note that bicycles are not allowed on the Wetherill Mesa Road.)

Hiking Trails are scattered throughout the park. The most popular are the Petroglyph Point and Spruce Canyon Trails near the museum. For details and trail conditions, ask a ranger.

Know the Rules of the Park

- We want you to have a safe and enjoyable visit. Follow park rules, not only to protect yourself but also to preserve Mesa Verde’s archeological sites and natural environment.
- Archeological structures are fragile. Take care not to touch, sit, stand, climb, or lean on walls.
 - Leashed pets can be walked along paved roads and in parking lots. Pets are not allowed on trails, in archeological sites, or in buildings. Do not leave pets unattended.
 - Help us keep wildlife wild. It is illegal to feed, stalk, capture, or tease wildlife.

For Your Safety

- In case of emergency, call 911
- Park Road Advisory
- Watch for snowplows working on the road
 - Follow all traffic signs
 - Beware of rocks in the road
 - Gasoline is not available in the park

- High Elevation
- Mesa Verde ranges from 7,000 feet (2,134 km) elevation to 8,572 feet (2,613 km) at Park Point. The air is thin and very dry. Stay hydrated!
